As a resident and leader in Pacific Grove for over thirty years, I have the experience and commitment to not only know what matters to folks here, but to make things happen that reflect those concerns. As a former City Councilmember, Planning Commissioner and Resident advocate, I have a record of getting things done. Open communication with the public and transparency in government have always been my north star.

Long working to preserve our environment, both natural and built, always recognizing that this not only protects the quality of life here, but promotes the local economy. I have run two businesses here: a successful law practice and a popular newspaper, The Beacon. I'm a leader who knows that we must preserve what makes our town so special yet be open to changes that will keep our town dynamic and thriving.
